

Leadership Lake Houston

Meet and market to the future leaders of the Lake Houston Area. Leadership Lake Houston is a prestigious nine-month program designed to prepare, tool and enable participants to make an impact on the growth and vitality of the community. To accomplish this, the class will attend day sessions, once a month for eight months, to learn the current status and needs of various aspects of the community. Participants will receive training for successfully serving on committees and boards. This program offers opportunities to sharpen leadership skills, develop knowledge, and focus on issues affecting our community. The session topics include Quality of a Leader and Area History, Business and Economic Development, Government, Justice and Public Safety, Education, Health Care, Social Services and Community Leadership. This special program includes an opening reception, two-day retreat and ropes course, eight sessions and a graduation ceremony.
