

ELECTED OFFICIALS RECEPTION, DECEMBER
The annual Elected Officials Reception recognizes and honors local, state and federal elected officials who represent the Lake Houston area. The event and program celebrate each elected official and allows one-to-one communication with constituents.

Annual Community Guide & Directory

Ten thousand copies of this award winning publication will be utilized in business development and recruitment programs, as well as for potential residents, visitors, customers, and clients. Several thousand copies of the Community Guide & Directory, a full-color editorial and pictorial overview of the Atascocita, Humble, Kingwood and Summer Creek communities, will be published for distribution to new residents, businesses requesting relocation information, and will be placed in more than 1,000 hotel and motel rooms throughout the area. In addition, 5,000 will be mailed to area businesses including each of the member representatives of the Chamber. An online version of the Community Guide & Directory will be available on the home page of the Lake Houston Area Chamber of Commerce's website LakeHouston.org. All advertisers will receive full color with graphic design included in the price.
